FUKIEN KILLS OR CAPTURES 21,000 BANDITS -- Nanking Hsin-hua Jih-pao, 15 Apr 50

Foochow, 14 April (Hsin-hua) -- The Fukien Military District of the People's Liberation Army has announced that between September 1949 and February 1950, 21,337 bandits were disposed of. Of this number, 1,629 were killed or injured, 8,522 captured, and 11,186 surrendered.

At the time Fukien was liberated in August 1949, approximately 40,000 bandits, organized into 130 bands, were scattered throughout the province. The military forces, local governments, and the people of the province immediately organized to suppress bandit activities. Beginning in January 1950, troops of various military subregions and also the Fukien bandit-suppression forces of the Third Field Army proceeded with a campaign to annihilate the bandits. At the same time, over 3,000 cadres were transferred from the various bandit-suppression forces to the various localities to organize activities for bandit suppression.
